keep the light - ing low I'll try to be just like her So you will hard - ly know

2. I feel you as you stroke my hair
 I feel like you're not really here
 She won't know how you take your time, as I remain
 The one that didn't get away
 In this imperfect world

I'll keep my movements simple
 I'll keep the lighting low
 I'll try to be just like her
 So you will hardly know

3. I wish I didn't know so much
 I wish I didn't need your touch
 I guess I am the lucky one the one you're with
 The one that didn't get away
 In this imperfect world
