shin dis-cov-ers my heel A lit-tle ca-ress... Then a kick

1. My left arm encircles your neck
I smell a hint of laundry soap mixed with sweat
No one's made a stronger aphrodisiac yet
How I love this tango

2. A milagro's up on the band's charts
I feel the quickening of your heart
A growl from the bass, we're off to a running start
How I love this tango

Under the southern cross
Nothing wagered is something lost
Your foot slips between mine
I know the bones of your spine
I know the way that you feel
When your shin discovers my heel
A little caress...
Then a kick

3. Facing our hands our cheeks they almost touch
You shaved today, I know so much
The heat of your face gives me an anguished blush
How I love this tango

4. Like shadows dancers pass us by so nearly
The glint of their skin is all I can see
But no other dancer can satisfy me
How I love this tango

Late nights and empty rooms
Daylight always comes too soon
But it's beautiful to see
Your eyes so clearly
A taxi on the street
We say 'Vamos a hotel señor', por favor, y
Cuando estamos entre medio de las sábanas
(When we are finally between the sheets), How I love this tango
