The

The angel of death has a big case of bad breath
The angel of death I caught her reading MacBeth
She still smokes those cigarettes

The angel of death wants to take me, she's friendly
The angel of death wants me before I'm ready
She licks her lips pointedly (seductively)

I call you up again I saw I am serious
You hear me out again, you say I'm delirious
You say I just want some attention

Guitar/Bass Solo

The angel of death has a shroud made of pubic hair
The angel of death cheats playing solitaire
She's the queen of the haughty stare

I call you up again I saw I am serious
You hear me out again, you say I'm delirious
You say I just want some attention

The angel of death were you a nightmare
The angel of death or were you really there
Hey what'd you do with Fred Astaire
