(Recorded key is Ab, it's written here in G for ease of playing.)

G7 C C min G

I got no one to dress up for

5 G7 C C min G

All's I got is a lonely front door

9 C G

What is there to do

13 C G 1, 2, 4. Fine

My whole life's a quiet blue

17 3. D7 C G

22 D7 C G D.C. al Fine

Ah

1. I got no one to dress up for
All's I got is a lonely front door
What is there to do
My whole life's a quiet blue

2. Used to be you'd drop on by Lean on my porch, you'd meet my eye
Jangle of keys, you'd walk on through
But now life's gone a quiet blue

3. Why'd I love a married man?
He said 'don't resist' he took my hand
He's the one that's untrue
But now I'm shunned in quiet blue

4. Adam crunched the apple Eve copped the blame
Two thousand years not much has changed
I just stare the whole day through
My life's gone a quiet blue
